HOUSE RESOLUTION 102
By Sargent

A RESOLUTION to congratulate Anne Dunn upon being elected mayor of Brentwood, Tennessee

WHEREAS, it is appropriate for this body to pause in its deliberations to honor those outstanding public servants in local government who have been entrusted by their peers with significant responsibilities in response to demonstrated characteristics of competence, trustworthiness and dependability; and

WHEREAS, following recent city commission elections, the city commission of Brentwood, Tennessee, on May 12, 1997, wisely elected Commissioner Anne Dunn to be mayor of the City of Brentwood; and

WHEREAS, Mayor Dunn, the first woman to serve as mayor of Brentwood, is serving in her sixth year on the city commission, and has served on the city's Sister Cities Board, the Historic Commission, the Cable Television Committee, the Planning Commission, and as vice mayor under former Mayor Joe Sweeney; and

WHEREAS, Mayor Dunn is the wife of John G. Dunn and the mother of Amy Dunn and Ian Dunn, a high school student, and leads an active civic life as an involved member and past president of the Brentwood Woman's Club and has served on the Brentwood High School Academic Committee; and
